

Institutional Learning Outcome (ILO) Data Collection Notice

This course furthers student learning in the <ILO e.g., Social Responsibility> institutional learning outcome (ILO) and is designated as an ILO course. For more information about ILOs, visit the university's website. The university is interested in reflecting on teaching and reviewing student achievement of this ILO as part of the SAIL (Strategic Assessment of Institutional Learning Outcomes) project. Your instructor is part of SAIL this year, so <Assignment e.g., Essay #1> will be included in the project dataset, unless you choose not to participate.

Faculty members in the SAIL project will review your assignment using an institutional rubric. An aggregate report will be provided to your instructor to inform improvements to teaching and learning. Aggregated results and recommendations may be publicly disseminated to promote continuous improvement of teaching and learning in higher education.

FIPPA Data collection notice: the university collects, uses, and discloses personal information in accordance with the BC Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (FIPPA). Your personal information is being collected under section 26(c) of FIPPA in order to allow the university to collect, assess, and reflect (as appropriate) on meaningful data regarding student learning for continuous quality improvement and assurance of high standards of educational excellence, as required by BC public postsecondary institutions. For questions about this collection, please contact: Privacy and Access Officer via <Email>, <Phone>, or <Address>.

To opt-out of including your assignment in SAIL, contact the SAIL coordinators, <Name, Title> and <Name, Title>, at <Email> with your course number, name, and student number.
